Increasing International Understanding Through Education!

A very warm welcome to our students, parents, sponsors and Universities

In response to popular demand we have put together a variety of articles and information in this edition of our Passport Magazine. We hope that you will find it useful when deciding where and what to study.

Over the last four years there has been a strong increase in demand for more world-wide locations and more universities to choose from. Therefore we have continued to diversify the BCIE global network to include more quality universities from the UK, Australia and the USA. You will not be short of choice.

As a company BCIE has continued to consolidate and expand throughout 2015-16. In June 2015 we opened a new office in Dubai and relocated our UK office. In December 2015 and January 2016 we completely renovated our Accra, Ghana office and we are currently contemplating opening a new BCIE office in Karachi, Pakistan. These developments illustrate our ongoing commitment to both our students and our university partners.

As expected we have seen significant growth in demand for places in both our Australian and USA universities. The UK continues to be the "Number One" destination for our international students but Australia and the USA are now much more popular mostly due to the more attractive post-study work options in these two countries.

Here is an update for you as to recent developments at BCIE.

Greater diversification

- This has been one of our stand-out characteristics and we have therefore expanded the BCIE university network especially in Australia, USA and the UK. Increasingly a number of world class universities have been approaching BCIE with a view to establishing a long term partnership.

Expansion of the BCIE Office Network

- Our Dubai office was opened in June 2015 and is already becoming a hub for our University partners from around the world.
- Our Accra office has finally undergone a much needed facelift much to the delight of our staff, students and universities.

BCIE Edfairs have been expanded

- We now run two fairs each year typically in June and November in Nigeria and Ghana
- Our first Pakistan Edfair is scheduled for April 2016

As regards the future we will continue to keep a very close eye on developments in the UK, Australia, and the USA. In this way we will continue to provide our students and universities with the very best service available anywhere in the world.

So welcome to BCIE and let's make sure that, working together, we can help you make your dreams of studying abroad come true.

The BCIE Difference:

- ✓ Thorough, detailed and up to date information about studying in the UK, Australia, the USA, Dubai and Canada.
- ✓ A UK Head Office so we can help you even after you have arrived in the UK.
- ✓ Extensive BCIE University network enables us to give impartial advice.
- ✓ Representation of top quality universities in the UK, USA, Canada, Australia and Dubai.
- ✓ Respectable offices and staff that are friendly, helpful, well trained and professional.
- ✓ Student counsellors that have first-hand experience of our universities in the UK, Australia, the USA and Canada
- ✓ University staff visit our offices frequently – they can directly counsel you as to their university, and in some cases give on the spot offers.
- ✓ Visa Counsellors that have applied for visas themselves and have extensive visa experience ensuring that they can advise you correctly.
- ✓ Close communication and regular meetings with the UKVI, USA and Australian High Commissions to keep up to date with any change in policies or procedures.
- ✓ Excellent student Visa success rates of 98% in all countries.

I wanted to take a moment to recognize all the hard work that goes into the promotion of a new partnership for Navitas. You have achieved success with Florida Atlantic University and you earned a GOLD STAR award of service for our business unit.

As a counselor and agent, you are in a vital role to the success of your students. You listen to their stories and you hear their dreams and aspirations. Not a day goes by that you do not influence others.

It was pleasant to work with you and your agency for the Fall 2015 intake.

(Dr Michelle Westfort, Navitas @ FAU)

Welcome to

British Canadian International Education Ltd

Background:

BCIE was set up in 1999/2000 by Dr. Cliff Dedynski and Nazmina Panju Dedynski (CANTAB). Together they have over 40 years experience in overseas education and today there are over 120 universities in the BCIE network spanning the UK, Australia, Canada, the USA and Dubai. BCIE has 12 offices worldwide; Nigeria (7), Ghana (1), Dubai (1), Pakistan (2) and the UK head office (1) – employing more than 70 well qualified and experienced staff. BCIE continues to expand and now places more than 1500 international students into their global network of universities each year, making BCIE the largest UK based student recruitment agency.

BCIE Services:

The growing BCIE team, now spanning five continents, are highly dedicated to helping our students get the education and support they need to fulfil their career aspirations.

Some of the services BCIE provide are as follows:

- Up to date impartial counselling advice aimed at helping you select the right country, university and course for your chosen career path depending on your current qualifications and aspirations.
- Comprehensive advice on the university application procedure (i.e. providing you with the University application forms and also help you to complete them).
- Information on all available scholarships – BCIE will inform you and help with the application.
- Provide you with detailed information as to the location, resources, facilities and accommodation available at the university of your choice.
- Help and advise you as to the procedure involved in obtaining your student visa and offer you an opportunity to go through a mock interview (where applicable). For Dubai, with the help of our universities, we will help you to obtain your visa so you do not even need to step into an embassy! In rare cases of visa refusals we can help you re-apply or appeal your application (we have a 97% visa success rate).

Once you have applied through BCIE and received an offer from a university, you will be required to pay part of your fees up front before you apply for your visa. Without the required deposit and/or supporting bank statements you will not meet the visa requirements of Australia, Canada, the USA or the UKVI. In addition nearly all universities now require a substantial deposit. BCIE will facilitate the payment of any deposit required direct to your university.

Remember we are the universities representative in your country. Take all the help and advice you will be offered. After all, you are investing a huge amount into your overseas education; you deserve to get all the quality help and assistance available through BCIE!

Caring for your future, advance your nursing career at Anglia Ruskin University

With over 6,000 students from more than 20 countries, our courses at the Faculty of Health, Social Care & Education are designed to address the key challenges and issues faced both in the UK and internationally.

Our Faculty of Health, Social Care & Education is the largest provider of health, social care and education courses in the East of England. With strong links with regional, national and international organisations, including healthcare trusts, schools and academic institutions, our students not only make an impact today but undertake meaningful research that will benefit generations to come.

Designed to enhance our students' learning experience our facilities include state-of-the-art simulated clinical skills laboratories that emulate real UK hospital wards at all three of our campuses, giving you the opportunity to gain hands-on experience in a safe clinical environment.

Whether your ambition is to become a competent, caring healthcare professional, join the next generation of social workers and social policy professionals, or pursue a rewarding career in education and learning we can help achieve it.

International Nursing degrees

Our nursing degrees are designed for international students to study nursing in the UK. Our nursing courses will help you further your skills and increase your career prospects. Our inspirational lecturers will provide the support you need to improve your competence and build your confidence.

If you're already a qualified, experienced nurse, this course will enable you to become an increasingly effective practitioner, caring for patients from different backgrounds with complex needs. You will develop the ability to respond flexibly to changing international healthcare needs

You'll learn more about how nurses work and care for patients in the UK. What's more, studying alongside colleagues from different countries will enhance your understanding of working with people from different cultures.

BSc (Honours) International Nursing Studies

Two Year course entry requirements:

- IELTS 6.0 or equivalent with a minimum of 5.5 in each component
- Current general nurse registration and valid nursing license
- Qualification in Nigeria, Ghana, Pakistan (degree or diploma) equivalent to the first year of UK Undergraduate degree

One Year course entry requirements:

- IELTS 6.5 or equivalent with a minimum of 5.5 in each component
- Current general nurse registration and valid nursing license
- Qualification in Nigeria, Ghana, Pakistan (degree or diploma) equivalent to the first two years of UK Undergraduate degree
- Or alternatively, a qualification in Nursing (degree or diploma for curriculums 2008–2011 and onwards) equivalent to the first year of UK Undergraduate degree and successful completion of our Accreditation of Prior Learning assessment

MSc International Nursing Studies

Entry requirements:

- IELTS 6.5 or equivalent (6.5 in the written component and 5.5 minimum in the other components)
- Current general nurse registration and valid nursing license
- A First Degree, with Honours, and a minimum final classification of Upper Second (2:1) or equivalent
- Students must be qualified for 1 year and working in an appropriate role within a clinical nursing environment

Work Shadowing opportunity for our postgraduate nursing students

A fantastic opportunity is now available for our MSc International Nursing Studies students. In addition to an excellent academic experience and our state-of-the-art clinical facilities, there's a chance to practice with our nursing and healthcare teams.

Located in major hospital in Essex and Cambridgeshire you will (subject to occupational health and Disclosure and Barring Service clearance) engage in a six-week (approximately) nursing work shadowing placement in the second semester of your course. We're offering our international nursing students, not intending to register in the UK, a rare opportunity to observe and experience UK nursing practice as part of our highly skilled nursing, medical and inter-professional care communities.

Recent study

Our professor involved in first ever study of stress on the wards in real time

Nurses are less likely to be stressed by the demands of a day on the ward if they feel valued and in control, according to a pioneering study.

During two work shifts, 100 nurses were asked to complete electronic diaries and had their heart rates continuously measured to see monitor their stress levels. The study – the first to measure the effects of stress on nurses throughout their working day – found that the actual tasks assigned to them had little impact on their stress levels.

However, what did make a difference was whether the nurse felt in control of the work, and whether they felt valued or appreciated, such as when interacting with patients (direct care). These direct care tasks did lead nurses to report feeling more stressed than other work, such as completing paperwork, but they also reported direct care to be more rewarding than other tasks.

Heart rate was higher by around three beats per minute in those who appraised their work as more demanding or requiring more effort. If the nurses felt in control of their work, they felt less tense, more cheerful and less tired.

Our Professor Patricia Schofield was one of the principal investigators in the study, which was led by the University of Aberdeen.

Professor Schofield, Deputy Dean for Research within Anglia Ruskin's Faculty of Health, Social Care & Education, said:

"It takes a certain type of person to go into nursing. A caring and compassionate nature is a pre-requisite, but what this study shows is that in order to get the best out of our staff on the wards, this needs to be a two-way street.

"Nursing is a tough, but rewarding job and if healthcare professionals feel appreciated it can reduce their stress levels and help them cope with the demands of a day on the ward a lot better."

Why Study in Australia?

International students today have a wide variety of destinations to choose from when trying to make a decision on where to pursue their studies. Studying abroad is a major investment and it is important for students to make an informed choice, based on facts. Australia is a choice destination for thousands of students, and below are some of the reasons why students decide to study in Australia:

- Unique experience – Studying in Australia promotes innovative, creative and independent thinking. You'll learn to work as part of a team, to communicate effectively with others and to develop the practical skills and intellectual abilities you need for global success.
- International reputation – The Australian education system has a strong international reputation and is known for its effective structure and innovative policy developments. Many other countries, eager to improve their own education systems, turn to Australia for advice.
- Great place to live – Australia offers an attractive lifestyle that is safe, stable and friendly. It has a very diverse multicultural society which helps international students to feel at home. You will benefit from a quality education and a good standard of living.
- Post Study Work Visa – Upon graduating with a degree from Australia, students are now allowed to work on the Post Study Work Visa scheme. Contact your local BCIE office for more details.
- Work once you graduate – In certain cases there may be the opportunity for you to work in Australia if you have studied in a field in which you intend to work once you graduate. This depends on whether the related occupation is on the Skilled Occupations List (SOL). The SOL is a list of skilled occupations that are in need in Australia. In general terms employment opportunities are good for international students graduating with qualifications in skill shortage subjects.
- Value for money – Tuition fees are internationally competitive which, combined with a low cost of living compared to other Western economies, represents good value for money.

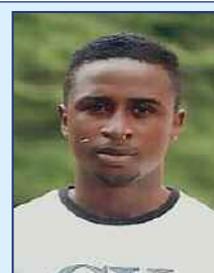

Are you ready to study in Australia? Are you ready to find an education institution that is perfect for you? Then contact BCIE, who will assist you in choosing the right course and education institution. We will guide you through the application process and also offer you Student Visa Guidance which will ensure that you successfully embark on your studies! Our Visa success rate is currently 100% for students who opt to use our services and follow our advice to the letter. Use our services and you will have a stress-free application process.

BCIE has been influential in my choice of my present institution. They have really made me see the true benefits of studying abroad and have so far made all the processes ranging from application from admission to visa counseling very easy for me.

I have always had this passion for media, communication and journalism and I have finally gotten the opportunity to study it in a prestigious university in Australia. BCIE has also contributed to make it a success. I have nothing but thanks to them. I want to encourage those new applicants to try BCIE because I know they are never going to regret it.

Thanks.

Study in the USA...

The United States has one of the world's finest university systems, with outstanding programs in virtually all fields.

International students today have a wide variety of destinations to choose from when trying to make a decision on where to pursue their studies. Studying abroad is a major investment and it is important for students to make an informed choice, based on facts. The US is a choice destination for thousands of students, and below are some of the reasons that these students decide to study in the US:

Top ranked education

The US offers some of the most esteemed, top ranked education anywhere in the world, diverse cities, beautiful parks, artistic, cultural, political and athletic events and a very multicultural population. The US education system offers international students the most varied set of education options in the world. International students can pursue anything from nuclear science to aviation to film.

Multicultural Environment

The US is one for the most multicultural and diverse countries in the world. International students will find living in the US a life changing experience. The US spans six time zones and each state has its own customs and culture.

Choice

Students have a wide choice of institution to match their academic and social interests, you will find over 4,900 accredited colleges, universities, and institutes providing both undergraduate and graduate students with choices in more than 900 fields of study.

Highly Innovative

US universities are world leaders in cutting-edge technology and are dedicated to providing the same resources to students. Familiarising students with the latest technology in science, engineering and related fields is of great importance

Work while you study

In certain cases international students may typically work on campus for up to 20 hours per week while school is in session. Full time employment is allowed during breaks and vacation periods.

I've always wanted to further my education in the US having graduated as a Computer Scientist from Achievers Uni. I wanted a school that would help me improve myself and still be affordable and BCIE helped me achieve that. My sister ran into BCIE's ad on the newspaper contacted them and told me about them, I was sceptical about going through any agency because of all the fraudulent activities we hear about in Nigeria but after meeting with Angela at the BCIE branch in Oregon

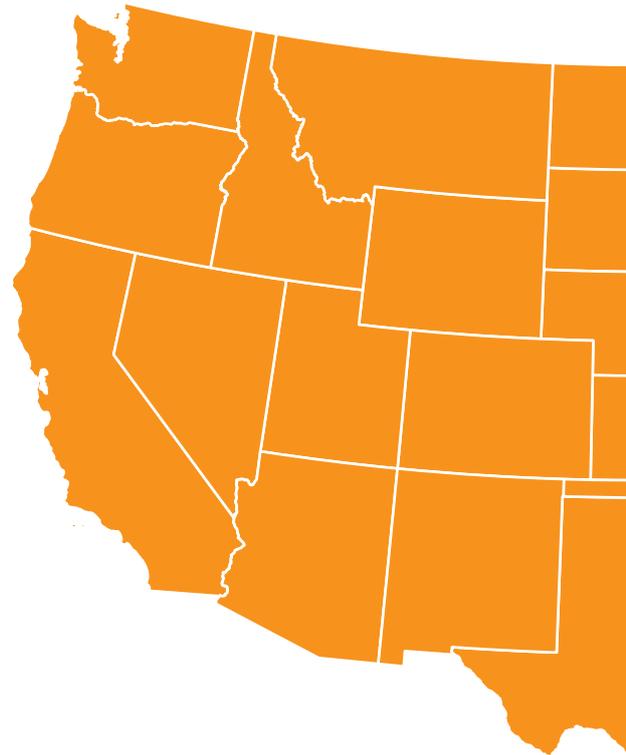

I was dazzled at the level of professionalism, friendly environment and the opportunities BCIE offered to undergraduates, graduate and PhD students. I applied and got my admission and they also help prepare me for my VISA interview at the U.S embassy and the whole branch was super excited when I told them I had gotten my Visa. BCIE created a friendly but yet professional environment that I have referred four of my friends to them.

Right now I am doing my Masters program at Southern New Hampshire University studying Information Technology and will be finishing up this year 2015.

Thanks to the whole BCIE crew.

The Law School @Leeds Beckett University

Leeds Law School is part of the Faculty of Business and Law at Leeds Beckett University. Located in the vibrant city of Leeds and with over 29,000 students, our university is one of the most popular in the country.

Our Law School sits in the heart of the great city of Leeds, the most important legal centre outside London, and home to over 180 law firms employing in excess of 8,000 professionals. We are perfectly placed to ensure all our undergraduate, postgraduate, full and part-time students are able to mine the wealth of practical experience and employment opportunities available on our doorstep.

With state-of-the-art facilities, mentoring, career development opportunities and tailored classes, students who choose Leeds Law School can expect a successful career founded on high calibre, practical teaching – teaching that ensures they will emerge as strategic, proactive thinkers capable of implementing contemporary and practical ideas in today's ever changing world.

The teaching of law at our university has origins dating back to 1924 and our highly qualified staff have significant professional expertise from having practiced as solicitors or barristers, providing you with a learning experience that is highly relevant to the legal world.

Studying with us means you will also benefit from access to ongoing high profile guest speaker events within the law school and wider university, enabling you to obtain valuable sector insight and build your professional network.

Postgraduate Courses

We have a range of courses available including our Legal Practice Course, PG Dip Law (Post Graduate Diploma in Law), LLM International Business Law, LLM Qualifying Law Degree and our LLM Law (Top-up). A number of our courses also offer options for full-time or part-time study, allowing you to combine study with work commitments.

All students on our LPC and PG Dip Law are allocated a professional mentor who practices as a solicitor in Leeds or the surrounding areas and who can provide practical support and advice during the period of study, work-based learning and career opportunities. The subject coverage of our LPC is prescribed by the SRA and delivered by staff with significant professional expertise (all are qualified lawyers).

What our students say about BCIE

Jawwad Khattak

PAKISTAN
COVENTRY UNIVERSITY

Every member of BCIE was very helpful in every way possible. Guidance provided and the help in the processing of the admission for the university is probably the reason I got this place at Coventry University. Visa counselling provided by BCIE was extremely helpful.

1. BCIE made interaction with the university very easy.
2. Took control of all the admission process.
3. Handled the payment procedure and gave guidance on how the payment is suppose to be done.
4. Document organization for Visa process was done excellently.
5. Preparation for visa interview was a confidence booster.

From my experience in meeting in study abroad agents. I have never received the type of services I received from any of them as compared to BCIE. With excellent staff that are very professional, understanding and sincere they are simply the best.

GHANA
CURTIN UNIVERSITY

I am really very grateful to BCIE, Ghana for all the support they have given me in my desire to study abroad. When I started the process alone, it was very difficult for me. But when BCIE took over the whole process, it was much much easier for me. And now I am on my way to Curtin University in Australia to pursue a Doctor of Philosophy in Management. Thanks to all the team members at BCIE, Ghana Office.

LEEDS BECKETT UNIVERSITY

I was confused as to what to do, during my application process to commence my studies, but the exemplary services and support I was provided by the university representative in Nigeria (Adenike Omotosho) was a great deal of help to me and made me more confident. Thanks to the support, I had a smooth embassy applications and ease at settling down upon my arrival. Leeds Beckett was and still is a great choice.

I approached British Canadian International Education when I had almost lost hope of furthering my studies abroad (Australia) but the way my visa application was handled gave me a modicum of hope. It was really professional and ever since then I have always referred my friends who cared to know that BCIE is the solution. I can't thank God enough for using BCIE to help me actualize my dreams. They are the best that I know, and you can take that to the bank.

Obtaining Your Student Visa - The Ultimate Challenge

The Visa Pathway BCIE will show you the way

If you plan to study in the UK you will need a 'Tier 4 (General) Student Visa'. To obtain your visa you will need to score a certain number of points under the 'Points Based System' (PBS). This system was introduced by the UKVI in an attempt to both streamline and make more transparent the entire visa application process. In 2015 the Biometric Identification Document (BID) was introduced alongside the Immigration Health Surcharge (IHS) and the Biometric Residence Permit (BRP). This puts the UK in line with the USA where health insurance has always been required.

The good news is that you may get an answer from the UKVI a little bit more quickly - but the bad news is that this may simply mean that you get a refusal letter sooner rather than later!

This is where the expertise and track record of BCIE comes into play. We have a student visa success rate in excess of 97% and even where some of our students get a refusal, we pull out all the stops to turn the decision around. In each of our offices we have fully trained visa specialists and they will help you throughout the visa application process. This is where the visa expertise of the BCIE team can make all the difference – often turning those bitterly disappointing refusal letters into joyous student visas.

If you would like to study in Australia the BCIE team currently has a 100% student visa success rate! As long as you follow our advice and as long as you are a genuine student and meet the 'Genuine Temporary Entrant' (GTE) requirements you will have an excellent chance of obtaining your Australian visa through BCIE.

However obtaining a student visa is no easy task as any student who has attempted to apply on their own will tell you. The whole process is complicated, time consuming and daunting. Therefore it is always best to apply for your visa in the first place through one of the BCIE offices. In this way you may well avoid an initial visa refusal – and this is important given that such a refusal would stay on your records at the Embassy or High Commission.

So how long does it take to obtain a visa? We always advise our students that obtaining admission into one of our universities is just the tip of the iceberg and that the real challenge still lies ahead i.e. obtaining your student visa. Each case is different and much depends on which country you decide to study in. Typically it may take 2 or 3 months to obtain a student visa for the UK, Australia or the USA and up to 6 months to obtain a Canadian study permit. Therefore it's really important you visit your nearest BCIE office and start the ball rolling well in advance of your intended departure date.

What is involved in the visa application process? In all cases you will need to submit meticulous paperwork with supporting documentation. However our BCIE visa protocol officers have been rigorously trained and they are there to hold your hand and help you to prepare and submit such documentation.

As for studying in the UK and the USA, you will be required to attend an interview. Again we are here to help you and the rule is 'Don't Panic!' Where necessary we will take you through a rigorous mock interview in preparation for the real thing.

BCIE has good working relationships with the UKVI, and the Canadian, USA and Australian visa authorities. The BCIE directors are in regular contact with the entry clearance managers at the UKVI to make sure that we are completely up to date with visa policies and procedures. We carefully follow such advice and train our in-country BCIE visa specialists accordingly. In this way over the years, we have developed a good rapport with the UKVI and with the Canadian, USA and Australian visa authorities and we know from first hand experience that this strategy of working together with the visa authorities helps our students, our universities and the BCIE team.

So – what should you do next to join the BCIE success story? It's very easy – just go along to your nearest BCIE office whether it is in Nigeria, Ghana, Dubai, Pakistan or the UK. Our staff are there to help you navigate your way safely through those visa minefields.

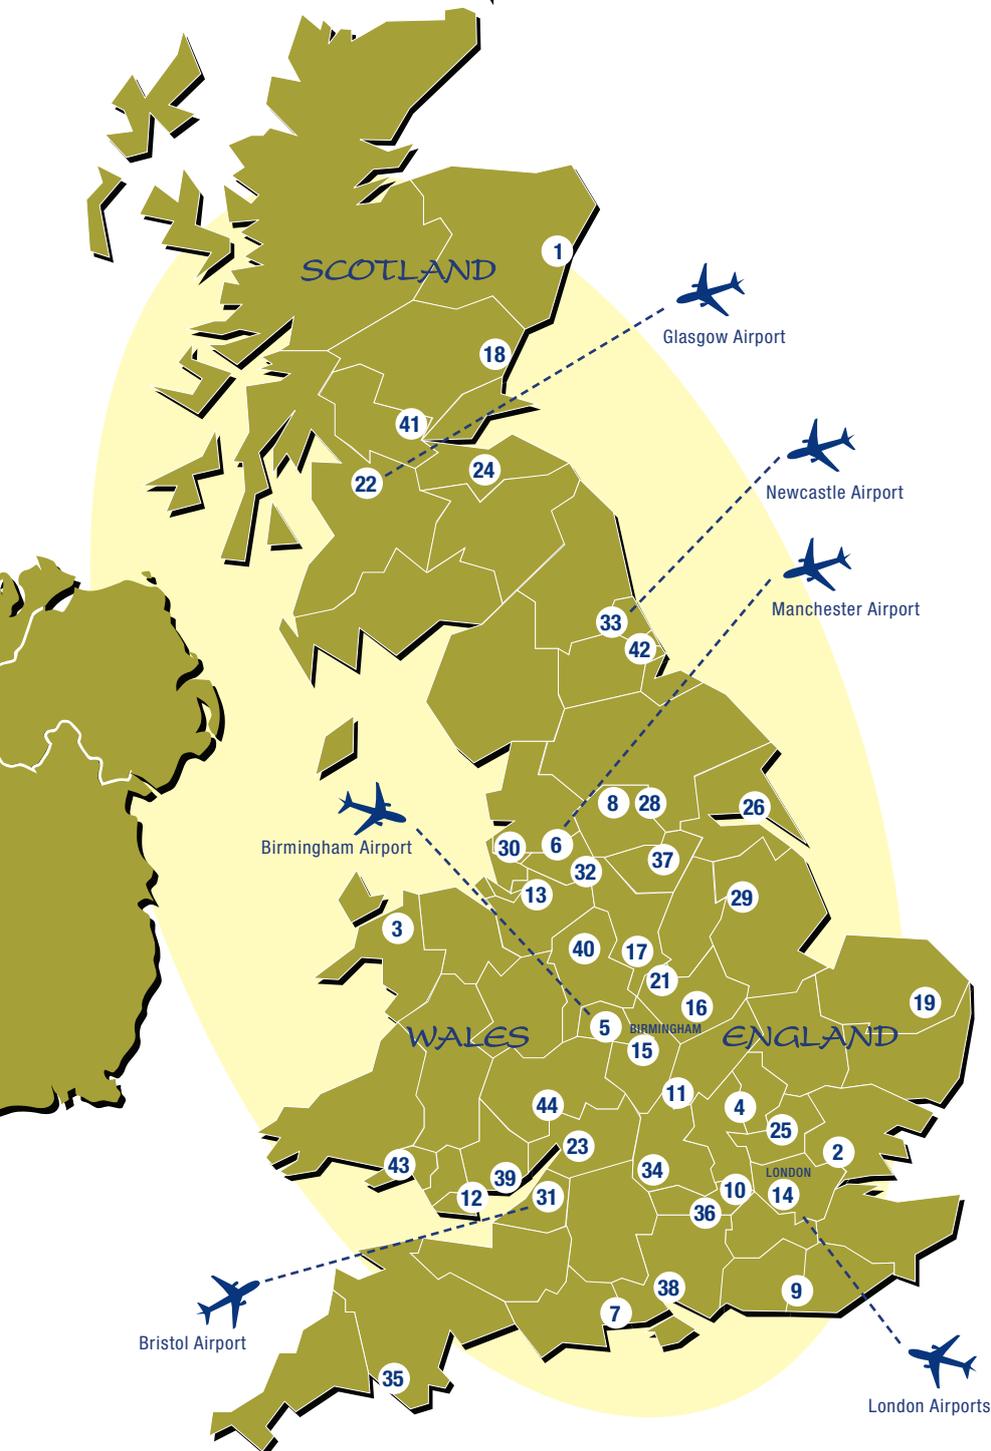

Tempting though it is we strongly advise you not to attempt to apply for your visa on your own. Our statistics show that you are more than twice as likely to get a visa with the help of BCIE. So get the best professional help there is – it may make all the difference and help you to make that study abroad dream come true.

NIGERIA
UNIVERSITY OF HERTFORDSHIRE

Having tried and failed on my own to apply for student visa, BCIE came at a best time for me. The pre-departure seminars, the unquantifiable help with the visa application and the professionalism with which they allayed my fears were awesome. At first, I didn't know what to make of BCIE services when they said it was absolutely free. But its being free did not deduct from the quality of service. Now as a postgraduate student in the University of Hertfordshire, I'm happy that I chose the school. Of course, as an international student there are a few challenges about settling down, but that's just for the first two weeks. Things are taking shape fast. Our teachers do everything they can to make us succeed, including giving us rare insights into how to better do our assignments in order to score good marks. Herts is a good school, with well equipped library and a virile student population. I'd recommend it for anyone, whether for sciences, engineering or humanities.

BCIE's University Network Comments...

Lorna Campbell
Regional Manager – Africa
Glasgow Caledonian University

Glasgow Caledonian University has been working closely with BCIE in Nigeria and Ghana since 2008. During this time GCU has participated in a number of BCIE education fairs, which have proven successful in generating good quality enquiries for undergraduate and postgraduate study at Glasgow Caledonian University. BCIE also provide excellent visa support sessions to applicants across Nigeria. Applicant feedback on these sessions has been very good and students have successfully gone on to obtain student visas through this dedicated support service at BCIE.

James Littlewood
Regional Manager
Bournemouth University

Bournemouth University has a longstanding relationship with BCIE and I have no hesitation in recommending their services to you. Having BCIE representation will make your experience of applying to Bournemouth University much easier. They will explain the courses available, our entry requirements and all other aspects of university life. They will also work closely with our International Admissions Office to ensure that your application is processed as quickly as possible and that other processes, such as visa applications, go smoothly.

Jeffrey Williams
Regional Sales Director –
Europe & West Africa
Navitas

I have personally worked with the BCIE team for almost 10 years. Throughout this time they have consistently delivered outstanding student recruitment results, and most importantly, delivered world class service levels to our clients – the students! BCIE are not just an agency they are our partners, pivotal to our success in the region.

Anthony Bradley
Regional Manager, International Marketing
Griffith University

"I am the Regional Manager for Africa at Griffith University and one of my responsibilities is to explore new markets for the university in that region. I decided to work with BCIE on account of traditionally visit Nigeria: we receive many travel warnings advising that we do not travel there. And so I was a little apprehensive before participating in BCIE's education mini-fair in September last year – I needn't have been! The fair was very professionally and smoothly run, and meticulous attention was paid to the security and comfort of the participating university representatives. Furthermore we received a considerable number of applications during the fair and have continued to receive applications ever since. I am very happy to endorse BCIE and look forward to participating in the BCIE Education Roadshow in Nigeria and Ghana this year."

Nana Adom
International Officer
Anglia Ruskin University

BCIE Nigeria and Ghana have provided us with very quality students over the years. The services they also provide are second to none. They are well positioned in these markets and continue to deliver good results.

Charles Magee
International Regional Manager
Birmingham City University

BCIE is the best performing agency in Nigeria for Birmingham City University. I am happy with both the quality and quantity of students sent. BCIE staff are professional, warm and friendly.

Sarah Jones-Morris
Acting Head of International Recruitment
Bangor University

"Bangor University has been working with BCIE for several years and have been very happy with the number and quality of students that BCIE have provided to Bangor University. Personally in my role as Country Manager for Nigeria and Ghana I have been working with BCIE for the past 4 years and feel that they offer an excellent service to the students. The process of applying to a University overseas can be a complex one and having the support of BCIE through the whole process makes it much less stressful for the students and parents. When they arrive at Bangor students talk about how important the support from BCIE was and how they appreciated the one to one support."

Jamie Hastings
Regional Manager (Africa)
Robert Gordon University

"BCIE has strategically located offices around West Africa and are a dominant force in the market of student recruitment. Robert Gordon University is pleased to be working as a partner to BCIE in the region and will continue to visit the regional offices and engage in exhibitions and other recruitment initiatives".

Melissa Gibson
Regional Director
University of Southampton

"I am delighted that the University of Southampton and BCIE have such a longstanding, positive working relationship and I am sure we will continue to do so for many years to come. The BCIE offices in Ghana, Nigeria and Pakistan are professional, welcoming environments with reliable, friendly and knowledgeable staff – all of whom can demonstrate the far-reaching benefits of a UK education to students and their families. It is testament to the support that BCIE provides our prospective students throughout the university and visa application process that we continue to work closely together and remain happy to refer students for assistance."

Gillian Ajayi

"I have worked with BCIE for many years, with several universities. I have found them to be highly professional, and caring of both the students and institution representatives. I attended the November 2013 exhibition in Lagos and Abuja and it was very well attended with quality, pre assessed students and very well organised. The students were a delight."

Lily Rumsey
Deputy Head of International
University of Salford

"The University of Salford work closely with BCIE offices across Ghana, Nigeria and Pakistan due to their commitment and expertise in UK education. We value our relationship with them due to the high quality visa advice and impartial, knowledgeable student counselling from their friendly in country experts who ensure that they provide an excellent service for students across the globe. We look forward to working with BCIE even more closely and welcoming students to our campus in Salford, Manchester"
